WOMANS RIGHTS AND A DEMOCRATIC MAYOR IN ONE DOSE.

BOSTON, December 10.—In the city election four ladies were chosen members of the School Board and a Democratic Mayor.

WASHINGTON CONCERNS.

THE CIVIL RIGHTS AFRICAN CONVENTION A NOISY AFFAIR.

WASHINGTON, December 10.—The survivors and the Virginius will be delivered in daylight on Tuesday next.

In the civil rights convention, the preliminary proceedings were interrupted by a motion of Mr. Cunly, of Texas, that Hon. P. B. S. Pinchback be declared permanent President by acclamation. The motion produced considerable excitement, and was lost. The call of States proceeded, and the Chairman of the State Delegation was appointed on the committee. The Convention throughout was somewhat turbulent, and did not adjourn until half-past twelve.

MERIDIAN SCRAPS.

NEW YORK, December 10.—Irving, self-accused Nathan murderer, sentenced to seven years for burglary.

NEW CASTLE, DEL., December 10.—The citizens and police were armed to prevent interference with the whipping of the bank robbers.

The steamship Texas, from Liverpool for New Orleans via. Port Royal, went ashore on Tuesday on the stone bar, seven miles south of the Tybee bar during a thick fog. Steamers have gone to its assistance. No damage is apprehended.

DAY MIDNIGHT.

THE FOG CONTINUED IN LONDON—LIVES LOST.

LONDON, December 10—London is again enveloped in a dense fog this morning. There were numerous accidents yesterday, both in the streets and on the Thames. The hospitals are filled with people who were run over or otherwise wounded on the river.

Three persons were killed by a collision between the various craft.

The steamer Amberse has arrived from Cape Coast. Thirteen of her crew died with yellow fever.

THIS unrivalled Southern Remedy is warranted not to contain a single particle of MERCURY, or any injurious mineral substance, but is containing those Southern Roots and Herbs, which an all-wise Providence has placed in countries where Liver Diseases most prevail. It will Cure all Diseases caused by Derangement of the Liver.

THE SYMPTOMS of Liver Complaint are a bitter or bad taste in the mouth; Pain in the Back, Sides or Joints, often mistaken for Rheumatism; Sour Stomach; Loss of Appetite; Bowels alternatively costive and lax; Headache; Loss of memory, with a painful sensation of having failed to do something which ought to have been done; Debility, Low Spirits, a thick yellow appearance of the Skin and Eyes, a dry Cough often mistaken for Consumption. Sometimes many of these symptoms attend the disease, at others very few; but the Liver, the largest organ in the body, is generally the seat of the disease, and if not Regulated in time, great suffering, wretchedness and DEATH will ensue.

This Great Unfailing SPECIFIC will no be found the Least Unpleasant.

ATLANTA CONSTITUTION FOR 1873.

A DEMOCRATIC NEWSPAPER, DAILY AND WEEKLY.

THE FAVORITE OF ALL CLASSES

Lawyers, Merchants, Farmers, Etc.

TWELVE REASONS FOR SUBSCRIBING

1. THE CONSTITUTION is published at the Capital of the State, and contains Proceedings of the Legislature in full, together with constant and accurate information of the actings of all the Departments of the State Government.

2. It has the sole and exclusive right of publishing the DECISIONS OF THE SUPREME COURT from the Reporter of the Court. These Decisions are delivered on Monday of every week and are immediately published in THE CONSTITUTION. Hence every lawyer in Georgia should take the paper, and the great proportion are subscribers.

3. THE CONSTITUTION is the Official Journal of the State, of the city of Atlanta and a large number of counties.

4. THE CONSTITUTION publishes a weekly Cotton Editorial, embracing remarks on the Gold Premium and all matters affecting the cotton trade, with statistics difficult to be obtained elsewhere. Producers and dealers in cotton, not alone in Georgia, but all over the country, procure THE CONSTITUTION for these articles.

5. THE CONSTITUTION furnishes Telegraphic Dispatches and news from all quarters of the globe, including markets, domestic and foreign. Hence the paper is popular with merchants everywhere.

6. Besides our Daily Associated Press Dispatches, THE CONSTITUTION has specials from Washington, the National Capital.

7. Its Correspondence Department is unsurpassed go the South, having special correspondents at Washington, New York, and in various parts of the country.

8. THE CONSTITUTION publishes a monthly Fashion Letter from New York, written by the most celebrated female Fashion writer in the United States. The ladies, therefore, all want THE CONSTITUTION.

9. A new feature for this year will be Weekly European Correspondence, by which the readers of THE CONSTITUTION will be taken on a tour through Europe.

10. The ablest writers and statesmen of Georgia select THE CONSTITUTION to give their views to public, and so do the PEOPLE, and hence it is the admitted leading Democratic Journal of the State.

11. The two great SPECIALTIES, our SUPREME COURT DECISIONS for the lawyers, and our COTTON articles for the merchants and farmers, make THE CONSTITUTION unrivalled in this part of the South.

12. For the reasons given above, THE CONSTITUTION is the paper for all classes, lawyers, merchants, farmers, mechanics and others, circulates in every county of Georgia, has the largest State circulation and is, therefore, the favorite medium for ADVERTISERS.

Every Georgian should, after taking his own local paper, subscribe for THE CONSTITUTION, published at the Capital of his State; and we would here return thanks to the people for a patronage, that has culminated in the grandest newspaper success known in the Southern States. THE CONSTITUTION, not yet five years old, has attained a circulation never reached by a Daily paper in Georgia, and has erected a magnificent five-story building of its own, as complete as any in the United States, giving employment to seventy or eighty persons daily, and running a half dozen presses by steam. Visitors to Atlanta are cordially invited to call and examine THE CONSTITUTION building and its powerful presses, printing four or five thousand papers per hour.

One-Half Interest in the Magnificent Atlanta Constitution Building Among the Presents.

1874. FOR THE YEAR. 1874.

DESIROUS of erecting a new and larger edifice on another street, the Proprietors of THE CONSTITUTION offer its subscribers the following unparelled List of Presents. THE CONSTITUTION is already the acknowledged foremost journal in all this section of the South. In a short time we shall commence a series of Letters on European Travel, by the distinguished and accomplished Professor William Henry Waddell, of the University of Georgia; Letters from the famous Georgia Authoress, Mrs. Maria J. Westmoreland; also a thrilling serial, besides a novelette from the pen of "Kingsback," author of "Annie St Clair," whose publication in THE CONSTITUTION has created such a furore. The great eight paged Sunday Paper will be continued, and also our pictorial Illustrations that have become so popular everywhere, and especially in the homes of our weekly subscribers. We hope soon to present a series of articles from the Corresponding Editor of THE CONSTITUTION Hon. A. H. Stephens. As a Political, Literary, Family Newspaper, THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION shall be second to none. In order to speedily erect our new building, we offer to our subscribers, both daily and weekly, a present, together with a chance for one half interest in the present splendid Constitution Building, valued at $15,000; to do this, subscription must be paid us in advance.

PLAN.—Every subscriber who sends us $10 subscription money for 1874, will be sent, in addition to his subscription receipt, a gift card, for which he will receive at the grand distribution one of the presents in the following

MAGNIFICENT LIST.

One-fourth interest in Building, $3,750, or $2,500 in gold.
One-eighth interest in Building, $1,875, or 1,250 in gold.
One-sixteenth interest in Building, $937 50, or $625 in gold.
One sixteenth interest in Building, $937 50, or $625 in gold.

Or 1 Glass Door Book Case, or other Furniture	150 00
2 China Sets	50 00
1 Small Iron Safe	50 00
100 Chromos, Engravings and Photographs	250 00
100 Copies Illustrated Works	250 00
1 Two horse Wagon	125 00
25 Packages Song and Instrumental Music	50 00
2 Fine Paintings (gilt frame)	50 00
100 Copies beautifully bound Novels, Volumes of Poetry, Literary and Scientific Works	250 00

4,653 other Presents, consisting of Novelettes, Packages of Stationery, Literary Gems, etc. Aggregate amounting to some $12,000.

As we propose to carry out this distribution in good faith and to the letter, we shall undertake nothing that we cannot execute save with great injury to ourselves. Therefore, we make these two express stipulations: First We reserve the right to pay cash in lieu of the first 12 presents. Second, We can require our Trustees, hereafter named, to scale, if necessary, the prizes to the number of cards disposed of, but in any event to retain one of the Building Prizes in the distribution.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION.

To represent the numbered Cards issued to subscribers, 5,000 Cards, each marked with the name of a present, and including all in the above list, will be thrown together and thoroughly mingled. From the receptacle of there cards, into which only a hand can be passed, one card after another will be drawn and numbered in the order drawn—1, 2, 3, etc. For instance that subscriber having the Card numbered 6, is entitled to the present upon the sixth Card drawn. As the entire transaction will be IN PUBLIC, the Cards are only numbered as drawn out, and all the Cards will be drawn, every thing must be perfectly fair and some of our subscribers must become the owner of a half interest in the building, valued to $7,500, and the other leading presents valued at from $100 to $400 each, including two city lots, will be held by other subscribers.

The Proprietors of THE CONSTITUTION believe that the public need no other assurance of their good faith than their published declaration, and character for reliability; but to leave no uncertainty they give place to the following from real estate agents, known throughout the State:

Messrs. W. A. Hemphill & Co:

DEAR SIRS—We have received from you titles, properly signed, to one half interest in the Constitution Building, which, as Trustees, we shall deliver to the parties entitled to it under the plan of distribution advertised by you. The building is, including basement, five stories high, one of the handsomest and best built in the city, and we think, with lot, correctly valued at $15,000.

G. W. ADAIR,
J. R WALLACE,
C. C. HAMMOCK.

OBSERVE.

PUBLIC DISTRIBUTION.—The presents will be distributed IN PUBLIC, in presence of Major Hammock, General Austell, President Atlanta National Bank; Judge S. B Hoyt, Cashier Georgia Railroad Bank; Judge C. H. Strong, Colonel G. W. Adair, President Georgia Western Railroad; Colonel J. R. Wallace and others.

1. The distribution shall take place, and all the presents shall be drawn in public.

2. We allow only sixty (60) days from this date, October 16th, for the operation of this grand scheme, and therefore, all who would seize this splendid opportunity must do so within 60 days.

3. By special request, any two daily subscribers can obtain two six month's receipts and one Card, or a $5 subscription will secure the paper for the first six months of 1874 and one half interest in any of the first fourteen presents, should any one of them be drawn to the Card.

WEEKLY SUBSCRIBERS.

4. Weekly subscribers have an equal chance of participation by forming clubs of five, to whom five annual receipts will be sent and one card for $10 subscription.

5. Send money direct by Post-Office Order, Registered Letter or Express.

6. We call special attention to this fact to avoid any dissatisfaction. Only 5,000 Cards will be issued. We shall POSITIVELY refuse to increase the number, which is less than the number of old subscribers. As all new subscribers are entitled to share in the distribution, it will be seen that it is necessary to remit at once, or the limited number of cards may be disposed of and the chance missed.

TO THE PUBLIC.

Through the darkest hours of Georgia's history THE CONSTITUTION stood fearlessly by you and your rights against proscription, persecution and even heavy libel suits by irate Radical Governors. In spite of such opposition THE CONSTITUTION has grown to a prosperity unsurpassed in the South. We now propose to show our appreciation of the people's support by a grand distribution of presents. Mark you, it is no lottery; you do not give one cent more than your subscription and you do only what subscribers should always do—pay in advance. The percentage of loss thus saved by us, and in expense of collecting, enables us to return it to subscribers in presents, and realize profit beside. Now we appeal to your gratitude and generosity, and if you bear that appeal, as you will, we shall erect a building capable of accommodating our increased business, and which shall stand as a MEMORIAL MONUMENT to the noble liberality of the subscribers of THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION—THEIR Christmas Present. Who cannot pay the small sum of one year's subscription in advance? Surely every subscriber will do so; and some will receive in return the grand presents of $7,500.

GEORGIA REAL ESTATE AND Immigration Company.

AN act of the Legislature of Georgia having authorized the formation of a Company "to facilitate the Sale of Real Estate in Georgia and to encourage immigration thereto," the undersigned propose to carry out the purposes of the grant by presenting to the public prizes in the form of real estate, both in town or country, to be drawn for on the second Wednesday in January, 1874.

Parties desirous of selling real estate are invited address the Company, describing the property and the price they are willing to take therefor.

The following extract from the law will explain the plan and purpose of the Company:

"Any person desirous to sell or dispose of his, her or their real estate through the said Land Agency by Lottery, or otherwise, shall before doing so fully describe the same as to the number of acres, and if a city lot the number of feet, its boundaries, character of the improvements, and county in which located, so it can be fully identified; shall then place a fair valuation thereon, which valuation shall be certified to by two disinterested citizens of the county o neighborhood in which the land is located, and when these prerequisites are complied with and the property offered for sale or lottery by the said Land Agency, The party or parties having the control of said land and improvements shall bind themselves in a good and sufficient bond to said Land Agents, or their successors, to make a valid title thereto to whoever may be the drawer or purchaser thereof; but no obligation to make the titles given to said parties shall be of any force or effect for a longer period than six months unless the valuation affixed to the property shall be tendered within the said term of six months from the date of said bond, whenever the said Land Agents or their successors shall tender to the owner or controller thereof, in currency, the valuation agreed upon for said property." See Georgia laws, 1866 page 70, for full act,

ATLANTA:

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 11, 1873.

Brevities.

In Moline, Illinois, wheat is one-third cheaper than potatoes.

A Southern American club has been formed in London.

Colonel Melchoir d'Arc, a descendant of the family of the Maid of Orleans, has been one of the witnesses on the Bazaine trial.

The receipts in Niblo's theatre, in New York, from the performance of the Black Crook, is said to have amounted to $1,657,207.75 since the drama was first produced.

Major Deschamps, the most implacable of the Parisian Communists, is reported to be in the United States marine corps. He headed the rabble that destroyed the Column Vendome.

In the trial of Marshal Bazaine, General Boyer testified that Bismarck told him he was willing to grant an armistice if the army of Metz would declare in favor of Napoleon.

This is the way it strikes him: "Alphonso, having attended a war meeting, says that buckling on one's armor this weather is not half so pleasant as buckling on to one's charmer.

At a juvenile party, one little fellow, rejoicing in the splendor of his new clothes, went up to another with the triumphant remark: "You ain't dressed as well as I am." "Well," retorted the other, "I can lick you, anyhow."

Hon. A. H. H. Stuart, of the Valley of Virginia, who was Secretary of the Interior under Filmore, is said to be writing incidents and conversations of the distinguished men of his age.

A French musical journal complains that France has no national anthem in which all Frenchmen can join, whereat Punch remarks that once on a time the great Handel composed one which they might consistently adopt, viz: "Their land brought forth frogs."

Mrs. Anna M. Cabell, who died in St. Louis a few days since, was the wife of Hon. E. C. Cabell, formerly United States Senator from Florida, and daughter of Mrs. General Ashley (afterwards Mrs. John J. Crittenden,) who died in St. Louis about a year since. She leaves three children, who will inherit their mother's handsome estate.

TO BOIL MEAT TENDER.—While the meat is boiling add for every three pounds, two spoonsful of brandy. Even tough meat will be made tender in this way without retaining any taste of the brandy.

> Nay, Lilly Maid; the sun you knew.
> The sun that knew and called you fair,
> Ne'er kissed a cheek so soft and white
> Or lips so sweet as I see there.
> She lies, the pale pretence of death,
> Your mimic self is all but that;
> Had Launcelot found you half so fair
> Dole had not come to Astolat.

No year in the present century has witnessed so many appalling marine disasters as that which is now drawing to its close. First the Northfleet went down in the English channel with 450 souls on board; next came the Atlantic with nearly the same number of victims; then the City of Washington, and last the loss in mid-ocean of the Ville du Havre with two hundred and twenty-six lives.

Jinks had been indulging too freely in ardent spirits. At a street corner his hat dropped into the gutter. Says Jinks: "I know—if I pick you up I'll fall—if I fall you won't p—hick—me—hick—up—good night!" And he walked off with a smile of satisfaction, describing innumerable zig-zags as he went, leaving his hat in the gutter.

That there is still a good healthful demand for the lighter classics of the last century is proved both by the high price of the old editions and by the steady appearance of a new series. Messrs. Bickers & Son and Messrs. Sotheran have brought out within the last two or three years library editions of Fielding, ten volumes; Smollett, eight volumes, and Sheridan, two volumes. To these they have now added Sterne, in four volumes, and they promise to extend their field so as to include Swift, Ben Jonson, and others.

Sir Fletcher Norton, who was somewhat ill-mannered, when pleading before Lord Mansfield on some question of manorial rights, chanced unfortunately to say, "My Lord, I can illustrate the point by an instance in my own person; I myself have two little manors." The judge immediately interposed, with one of his blandest smiles, "We all know it, Sir Fletcher."

General Don Jose Lopez Uraga, who was formerly General-in-Chief of the Armies of Mexico, sails on the steamer Colon, en route to Guatemala, where he goes for the benefit of his health. This distinguished officer, upon recognizing the Empire of Maximilian, became Councillor of State and Grand Chamberlain of the Imperial Household. By order of the Emperor he accompanied poor Carlotta on her trip to Yucatan. He also went to bring her back from France, but found her a raving lunatic, unable to recognize him upon his arrival at Miramar.

Mr. St. George T. Mason, son of the late Hon. John Y. Mason, of Virginia, after serving gallantly in the Confederate army, went to France after the war, and received from Louis Napoleon a commission as Sous-Lieutenant in the famous Foreign Legion. He rose to the rank of Captain, but tired of service in Algeria, where the Legion has been stationed for many years, he, a short time ago, became naturalized as a French citizen, in order to be transferred to a French army corps.

WASHINGTON, December 7.—The opposition to the confirmation of Attorney General Williams on the part of Republican Senators has not subsided. Some of them are very bitter in their condemnation of it; and it is reported that a number of them called upon the President yesterday and requested him to relieve them of their embarrassment by withdrawing the obnoxious appointment. It is stated that Senators Edmunds, Carpenter, Wright, Frelinghuysen are among these.

A private letter from a gentleman in Europe says that while in Paris lately, he found the principal costumers of that city busily engaged on Mardi Gras costumes for the mystic societies of New Orleans, Memphis and Mobile, and adds that those for the "Memphis" are most costly and elaborate of all. What the representation is to be he was unable to ascertain, but from the costumes, which are rich, elegant and varied, he concludes that the subject will be historical and antique, representing probably some epoch and events long before the Christian era.

The Pacific ocean makes good the justness of its name, in comparison with the boisterous Atlantic. During the past season the openness of the northern seas of the Pacific not only secured safety to the whaling vessels, but enabled them to follow the whales in high latitudes, so that they had a fairly successful season. Of the forty vessels in the whaling fleet of the North Pacific, thirteen have returned to San Francisco, with 9,550 barrels of oil, 100,000 pounds of bone and 250 pounds of ivory.

Calling the roll by States, the Representatives are now sworn in, presenting themselves before the bar. Before administering the oath, the Speaker announces that if there are any who do not wish to take "theirn straight" they will please keep their seats. There are a good many who prefer to take it with sugar, prominent among whom is Alexander H. Stephens. He is assisted to the bar by Father Herndon, of Texas, by the side of whom (a grizzled six footer, with a front like Neptune) he seems a pigmy. There is one son of Ham in the line, who, by accident, stands at Mr. Stephens' left. What a picture! The South Carolina bouquet is a singular collection. The indigenous Southron, the African lily and the exotic carpet-bagger are blended in floral mellifluence. Ain't it jolly?

It is said that all the young doctors of San Francisco are ruining themselves in car fares. Their presence is a great annoyance to any passenger reasonably stout and apoplectic looking. They watch him as a cat watches a mouse. At the slightest sign of an attack they are prepared to rush forward and, like Mr. William Allen and his friends at the terrible Eatanswill contest between rival editors, "bleed the party." This speculative state of things in the medical market has been started by the good luck of a Dr. Parks, who rescued an elderly Frenchman who was seized with vertigo on the platform of the cars near Ogden. He was found to be suffering from an attack of apoplexy. Dr. Parks saved him; accompanied him to Salt Lake City, and faithfully tended him until he was fully able to proceed on his journey. The Frenchman, it was subsequently learned, returned to France. A few months ago Dr. Parks received an invitation to call upon the French Consul. The reader guesses the rest. Has it not been told in novel and story? The Frenchman had left the doctor his fortune—two hundred thousand dollars. That is what has set all the young physicians wild, and impelled them to travel in search of a "fee" in the shape of an apoplectic subject.

Amnesty.

The amnesty bill reached the Senate, and was there prevented from being read a second time by Charles Sumner, who avowed that he did it for the purpose of coupling its passage with his civil rights bill.

The conduct of Sumner is simply fanatical and infamous. It is cowardly beyond words. He seeks by a trick to secure his negro equality crusade. Defeated on its merits, he seeks to tackle his vanquished measure of outrage to a matter of statesmanship and justice, and thus force its success.

We repeat that the trick is infamous.

BAZAINE.

Our morning telegrams tell us that Bazaine has been convicted of surrendering Mertz and his French army improperly, and sentenced to be degraded from his rank and executed. The sentence has been accompanied by a recommendation to mercy.

We have never, from the day of the surrender by Bazaine, entertained any other opinion than that his conduct was an amalgam of treachery and cowardice that deserved the fullest punishment known to military law.

At the time of its occurrence THE CONSTITUTION so expressed itself, and has seen no reason since to change the opinion.

Atlanta Constitution.

In a few days the presentation of $12,000 worth of gifts to the subscribers of that paper will take place. These presents range in value up to $3,700. Many of the presents are valuable ones—indeed there are not any other kind. The scheme was gotten up by the proprietors of THE CONSTITUTION, to induce subscribers to pay one year's subscription to the daily in advance, to enable them to erect a larger and more suitable building for their office. The plan of drawing these presents is a fair one, and every ticket-holder will receive something, and all will have an equal chance at the valuable gifts.

If there are any parties wishing to hold a ticket in the drawing, they can secure one by paying for THE DAILY CONSTITUTION for one year in advance, or make up a club of five weekly subscribers at $2 each.—West Point News.

An Advocate of the Convention.

The Augusta Chronicle publishes a letter in favor of a Convention from a gentleman styled the Honorable A. C. Walker. In this letter Mr. Walker advocates a Convention to alter the Constitution on the ground that he burned unread the only copy of the Constitution he ever saw, and had never seen one since or had any knowledge of it.

With all courtesy to Mr. Walker we doubt the propriety of taking advice in the matter from gentlemen who offer such advice on the ground that they know nothing of the subject.

Good sense dictates that advice should be sought from men who know whereof they write. Ignorance in no basis for intelligent admonition.

Mr. Walker farther illustrates his conception of what is right by deliberately advocating the abolition of the Supreme Court as one of the measures of reform to be accomplished by a Convention, and the return and retrogradation of the State to the confusion and uncertainties of the old system of Superior Courts without any tribunal of appeal.

Does the Chronicle endorse Mr. Walker's views? If it does, the people of Georgia will have no difficulty in coming to a decision on the Chronicle as an adviser, and on the propriety of holding a Convention.

If the advocates of a Convention propose to abolish the Supreme Court and advocate a Convention from ignorance of the organic law, the thing will fall dead.

Don't Run Down Your Town.

The cry of enormous taxation will very possibly do our city an injury, and serve to decrease the value of property. While our tax is high, it is perhaps not more burdensome than that of most places in the country. True, we are involved in a debt contracted by making investments which are wholly unprofitable, and which ought never to have been made, but still we have it on us and must make the best of it. It is claimed that a portion of this debt is illegal, and the question has been referred to the courts, where it properly belongs, and let us abide that decision. If illegal it ought not to be paid, either principal or interest, but if declared legal by the proper tribunals, then we should go to work to meet it the best way possible. But while this is true, we should not raise a needless cry that will injure our city or tend to drive population away from it. Capital is cautious and will not seek investments that are clouded by suspicions, and these suspicions cannot be more readily aroused that by our own citizens raising a hue and cry that will tend to get out the impression that we are more previously burdened with taxation than other places and that our property is worthless. As we have before said taxes are high, and this is true as well as of municipal assessments, and the per cent. levied in Griffin is as light, if not lighter, than most cities of which we have an account. As we have before stated injudicious investments have been made, which have made our taxes higher than they ought to be, and if any of it is illegal it ought not to be paid, but this should be no pretext for raising an excitement that will injure the sale of our property, detract from the property of the city or drive capital from our midst, for it is very easy to give a place a back-set that it can't get over for years.

Property commands better prices in Griffin, all things considered, than any city in the State, and there is as much demand for it. Store houses and residences command good rents, while sales of property bring good prices.—Griffin News.

The Salary Grab Again.

No State has greater cause of complaint against her Democratic Representatives than Georgia for their action in voting for and taking the back pay. No State had a prouder Congressional record. Her members have been distinguished from the beginning of the government to the days of secession, alike for their ability and honor. A more spotless set of men never represented a sovereign commonwealth in the national councils.

When, therefore, the vote upon the salary grab disclosed the fact that a majority of our Democratic Congressmen and Senators had voted for it and all taken it, it excited a deep-seated feeling of indignation and mortification over the whole State, that the State's reputation had been lowered and her proud record impeached by her own sons.

As we have before stated, the question of pay for future service might be judged honestly and differently, but upon the matter of back pay for rendered services already paid for at stipulated price, there can be but one judgment, and that is, it is practical robbery.

We had a right to expect that our Georgia Democratic members should have taken prompt, bold, emphatic, unconditional, unchanging stand against it, and have set a conspicuous example of the punctilious integrity that has ever marked the Georgia representation in the national councils and that should characterize all national legislators.

The action of the Representatives and Senators, therefore, was not only an act of personal culpability in them, but a grave offense against the State they had the honor to represent.

We see by our special telegram from Washington that Mr. Stephens has the floor to-day on the repeal of the salary increase bill, and it is rumored that he will oppose it. Whatever position Mr. Stephens may take on the pay for future services, we sincerely trust that he will not defend the back-pay feature of the increase. If he does, he will make a most inauspicious beginning of his new career, and provoke a condemnation of which he little recks.

Returning to our back-pay grabbers, Georgia owes them a deep censure as unfaithful public servants.

The Cost of a Convention.

Some of our State contemporaries that have gone wild on the subject of a Constitutional Convention in Georgia, when met with the practical objection that it will be a very costly luxury in these hard times, appear to think that two or three hundred thousand dollars is a mere bagatelle to burden our already over-burdened State with, right upon the heels of a financial panic that has disordered every pecuniary interest of the country, impoverished hundreds of business men, and left its disastrous marks upon every vocation.

Really these gentlemen should have the privilege of footing the bill. If the ambitious individuals who desire to get into that Convention are practically in earnest in the matter, we opine that the people will let them have their costly fantasy of a convention—if they will pay for it. But the rest of the people who are trying to make both ends meet, and thousands of whom have been sorely pressed to raise money to pay their taxes, may well be permitted to ask exemption from the grinding burden of additional taxation to remedy fancifully-theoretic defects in the fundamental law that are not hurting anybody.

Nothing in the world is easier than to appeal to prejudice. And there is no stronger prejudice in Georgia to appeal to than the deserved opposition all right-thinking men feel for the fruits of Radicalism. Because the Constitution was largely the work of a Radical body, it is a popular thing to invoke hostility even to the good things in that Constitution. But sensible men consider always the good sense, the judgment, the feasibility and the proprieties of time and means in all reforms.

This matter of a convention is not all patriotism in its advocates.

There are many axes to grind, for which the dear people are to pay. Secret schemes are entertained and privately urged underneath the more boldly expressed reasons for a convention. It is well known that many extreme opinions have been entertained on divers public matters, and the convention is to afford an opportunity of upheaving the whole aggregate of established institutions that are in conflict with individual prejudices.

Among the numerous projects to be carried out by the convention are said to be the repeal of homestead and relief laws, the wiping out legislation by the wholesale that occurred after the forty days session of the Legislature of 1869-'70, etc.

The paramount question now is the two or three hundred thousand dollars of unnecessary expense that is to be saddled on our toiling and burdened farmers and business men in a time of stress and hardship. Those journals that are trying to stimulate a public opinion, that left to itself is quiet and satisfied, by calling for public meetings to discuss the matter, may make light of the quarter of a million of hard precious money that is to be wrung from the distressed people of the State for an expensive whim of a few agitators, but we opine that the people themselves will view the matter differently.

It is amusing, if it were not serious, to see those journals counting up millions of fanciful savings that a change in the organic law is to effect. The Micawber-like calculations of these fantastic arithmeticians are simply wonderful.

One journal goes it grandiloquently in its imaginative arithmetics. It has figured up three millions to be saved in twenty years from restricted legislation. Another champion on the same line wants to enlarge the number of forty-four Senators to one from each county, which would threefold increase the cost of a Senater. We are not told which programme of economy is to be adopted, the fantastic one that saves three unimaginable and prospective millions in twenty years by a Micawber scheme of legislative reduction, or the costly amplification of the State Senate into a body of three times its present size with the prospective increase of about as many millions in the same twenty years.

But it is scarcely necessary to pursue the theme. The cost of this thing now is simply an insuferable objection. The vigor with which certain journals are trying to work up a public sentiment on the Convention, would indicate that they did not have much faith in the zeal and general existence of that sentiment, and thought it needed a powerful coddling to arouse it up to proper activity and proportions.

When the times get easier and money is more plenty, then we can talk of conventions. We have a Democratic administration of our own selection to run for three years longer. The people can trust that administration to guard them against the fancied and real evils of the organic law. And there will be ample time in a year or two to inaugurate reforms. But while the real evil of our situation is tight times and pecuniary pressure, let us not aggravate that evil to cure imaginary woes that press us only in theory.

EARLY COUNTY.—Last Sunday's CONSTITUTION contains numerous extracts from letters forwarding funds to secure that valuable paper and a chance in their drawing, but we see not a single one from Early. We know that in a fair distribution, such as that will be, our community would be entitled to a goodly number of prizes, and as we are not selfish enough to wish to monopolize them all, we would suggest that some of our friends take measures to divide the spoils with us. A fourth interest in the building is all we are after.—Early County News.

Our friend should see the books. Early has a big representation.

ON GENERAL GORDON.—The Herald's Washington correspondence has this good joke of General Gordon:

As the Republican Senators were assembling in the ladies' reception room at the Capitol for the purpose of holding a caucus, Senators Gordon, of Georgia, and Ransom, of North Carolina, both Democrats, who were not aware of the use the rooms had been for the time set apart for, attempted to enter. The doorkeeper politely informed them they could not go in. At this Senator Ransom got indignant and asked the employee if he knew who he was, reminding him at the same time that he was a Senator and had the right of access to the public rooms of the Senate. The party blocked the way of those entitled to admission, and Senator Robertson, of South Carolina, learning the cause, said: "Let in the penitent sinners." The Democratic Senators withdrew their demand for admission and found more congenial atmosphere nearer, the Senate Chamber.

☞ The New York World says: It is as clear as sunlight that the Democratic party we mean the voters of the Democratic party from Maine to California, demand of their Representatives in Congress that they shall brand the salary-grab iniquity as it deserves, by calling for its repeal at once, by forcing the issue upon Congress, and by voting for its repeal, every man of them. That is the sincere desire of most honest people; it is the imperative demand of the honest masses of the Democratic party, uttered with clear and unequivocal accents in every State Democratic Convention which has met since Congress adjourned. Demand the repeal of the salary grab.

A Paris Balloon in Africa.

A curious story comes to us across the ocean of a shapeless bundle of rags found recently in a tree-top in the South African colony of Natal. It proved to be one of the missing balloons which floated out of Paris during the seige with a freight of letters and dispatches—orders from the government of national defense to its generals in the field, and messages of love and cheer, of sorrow and complaint from the suffering citizens to their friends outside. If the government had no better way than this of reaching its commanders, it is perhaps not surprising that the military operations of France occasionally lacked consistency. It has been suggested that the contents of this serial mail may have an important bearing upon the trial of Bazaine; but a question which will interest the public far more than the purport of the letters is how the balloon should have found its way from France to the southern extremity of Africa. Natal is over 5,000 miles from Paris in a direction almost due south. We should like to know what Prof. Wise's easterly current was doing while the air ship made this extraordinary voyage. New York Tribune.

A FEMALE LOTHARIO.

A Toledo Woman Accumulates Four Husbands.

Toledo Commercial, November 25.]

One of the most remarkable matrimonial adventuresses that ever traveled in this country was brought before the public of Toledo yesterday, in the person of one Mrs. Hollister, alias Mrs. Doran, alias Mrs. Ward, alias Mrs. Parmenter. It appears that she was born and raised in Seneca county, this State her father's name being Vail. He died when she was quite a young lady, and she married a Mr. Hollister in that county. She claims that Mr. Hollister treated her very kindly. She had two children by him, according to her story, and just about the time the second one was born he ran away from her, and fled with a "handsome woman." She then struggled along for a while, and finally went to DeKalb county, Indiana, to try her luck among the "Hoosiers." After a while, it appears from the statement of the man himself, she fascinated and married a Mr. Brown. She lived with him a short time, but yearning for something new, and ever ready to indulge at her favorite pastime of adventure she left Mr. Doran and made a flying visit to this city. Mr. D. followed her some time after, and, on arriving here, discovered that his wife was also the wife of a Mr. Ward, and that the ceremony had been lawfully performed at a justice's office in this city. He preferred not to disturb the serenity of her newly found affinity, and left her alone in her glory. She lived with Mr. Ward a few weeks, and, finally, tired of him, she took a tramp to the lumber sections of Michigan. It was only a few months ago that she met a Mr. Parmenter at Saginaw, and by her usual attractive graces succeeded in capturing his heart. That gentleman married her, and a short while before these facts became known moved to this city, we believe just seven weeks ago. The three husbands all live, it is said, in a stone's throw of each other, and it is quite strange that they should have remained so close together for that length of time without raising a "rumpus." The woman claims that she does not know Messrs. Doran or Ward, and that Mr. Parmenter is her second and "lawful" husband. She was arrested on complaint of Mr. Doran yesterday morning by Detective Burbanks This morning at 2 o clock she was in a cell at the station, claiming to be in a very delicate condition and apparently suffering some pain.

HISTORIC STEPHENS.

Picture of a Dramatic Scene in the House.

The Washington correspondent of the Brooklyn Argus writes:

"Chief of them was Alexander H. Stephens. Col. Waddell, of North Carolina, supported the brilliant, intense, magnificent tactician of other days to his feet. He took their arms and dispensed with the significant crutches that had been stacked in front of his desk. He stood right at the beginning of the middle aisle of the house. By felicitously dramatic accident or happy design, all the rest of the many ex-Confederates ranged in a semi-circle on either side of their former Vice-President. Then the modified oath was taken by them with uplifted hands and assented to with an unanimous and quietly-elegant bow. There were many magnificent looking men in the company; I doubt that any one observed them; the pale, suffering, distinguished little man in the middle was the cynosure of all eyes. He was dressed in exquisite black, as if in mourning for his country. In sitting, he had worn his hat to protect him from the draught. In standing, he dispensed with it, and disclosed an abnormally large head, pierced with intensely black and deep eyes and covered with a short, disordered growth of iron-gray hair. When he responded to his name the strong soul in him was manifest, for his clear, sharp, penetrating voice, the echo of that soul, was heard distinctly all over the house. The ethereal part of the man is as strong as ever. The physical is a wreck. It was a historical scene. He who for fifteen years before the war had been the leader par excellence of the House, returned to subscribe to the oath administered by a Speaker who was never heard of when Stephens left Congress, or three years thereafter. In all the House were but two men who had been his congressional contemporaries—'Sunset' Cox, then of Ohio, and John B. Clarke, then and now of Missouri, who had a three months of notoriety fifteen years ago by flinging John Sherman's endorsement of Hinton Rowan Helper's 'Impending Crisis' at John Sherman's head, and thereby defeating him for Speaker, though Henry Winter Davis' single vote elected William R. Pennington, a Jersey Republican, to that office. Well could Stephens say he stood dying the solitary survivor of many great dead. Gone was Thad. Stevens, the incarnation of hate; gone was Giddings, the abolitionist, whom Stephens himself loved; gone was the courtly ex-Governor Briggs, of New York, and the uncouth Mike Walsh; gone was the fiery Keith, and gone the fearful and wonderful John Covode; gone the eloquent Lovejoy and the mellow Mallory; gone Herschel V. Johnson; gone Bocock, and Yulee, and Edmondston, and Clingman, and the impetuous Brooks, and Potter, and Rector, and Phelps, and Rollins, and Winter Davis, and a thousand, once statesmen of either party, and there was the man on whom twenty years ago death had apparently set his seal, survivor of them all, and representative of the greatest district of the Empire State of the South. Background this contrast with the fearful four years of intersectional throat-cutting, and the dramatic facts of the occasion stand out, grim with graves and lighted by intense cerebral fire."

Summary of State News.

ELBERTON.

About 2 o'clock last Tuesday the coal house of Mr. J. F. Auld, of Elberton, came very near being burned. The fire started in a lot of fuel he had stowed away. ——The town pump of Elberton, is out of order, and the people, for the first time, are enjoying pure milk. ——Hot suppers are the order of the day among the colored population of Elberton. One was made too hot for comfort the other night by the unexpected arrival of a constable with a search warrant. The number of collectors who were out upon the streets of Elberton last Tuesday trying to obtain money has been variously estimated at from eleven to twelve thousand. ——There was a little scuffle between some white gentlemen and some negroes at the Horton place, ten miles above Elberton, last week. Some of the crowd got black eyes, and some were already so black that it was impossible to ascertain the color of their eyes. The has been no funerals as yet.—Gazette.

GRIFFIN.

The election for the various city offices of Griffin came off Tuesday night. There were only about a dozen applicants for each office. —At the adjourned session of Henry Superior Court last week Mr Massey was found guilty of stabbing Charley Dupree and sentenced to pay a fine of $500 and costs or go to the chain gang for twelve months. —The inauguration of the new Mayor and Council of Griffin took place Saturday night. Speeches were made by Mayor Beeks and the Mayor elect, Col. Nunnally. The latter advocated reform in everything pertaining to the City Government. A decrease in the number of city officers, and the amount of the salaries and an efficient police force.— A negro who drove a wagon loaded with cotton to Griffin the other day, and had it caught up with a foreclosure of crop liens, said "that it had been already levied on, by half dozen writs of rousters, and that two true bills had been found agin his mules."——The Great Eastern Circus exhibited in Griffin on Tuesday.—News.

MACON.

The river has fallen some six or eight feet since Saturday, and unless some rain falls the waters will soon have retired to their proper quarters.——A difficulty occurred on Sunday in Fourth street, near the Brown House, between Henry Schrimshire and Fred Knight, in which the latter received a cut in the stomach with a knife. Fortunately, the wound is not serious.—Mollie Waldrup, a widow woman of Macon, aged about twenty-five years of age, attempted to poison herself with strychnine last Sunday. She fell in the street, and was picked up apparently dying. She remained insensible throughout Sunday and Sunday night, but was some better Monday morning, and it was believed she would recover. Destitution and poverty are supposed to have been the cause.——The new engine, lately brought out for the Ocmulgee Fire Company No. 2, named the "Simri Rose," was taken out and tried Monday. Under thirty pounds pressure of steam through 10. feet of hose and 1¼ nozzle she threw 255 feet and nine inches. Two streams through 50 feet of hose were thrown 192 feet and 9 inches. The engine gave entire satisfaction.—Telegraph and Messenger.

COLUMBUS.

A meeting was held at Hamilton on Monday for the purpose of devising ways and means for the extension of the North and South Railroad to that place. The meeting was attended by a respectable and influential portion of the citizens of Harris county and a number of persons from Columbus. Mr. M. C. Farley presided. Speeches were made by Colonel Mobley, William Hudson, Captain Chipley and others, and $450 was at once subscribed, which, together with the $1,300 recently subscribed makes $1,700. A committee was appointed to canvass the county, and the meeting adjourned.—Enquirer.

The out-going freight train from Columbus ran off the track this side of Fort Valley on Monday. Four of the rear freight cars were badly knocked to pieces, but no one hurt.—Sun.

AUGUSTA.

Lindsey Campfield, a darkey youth of Augusta, was send to jail by the Recorder for sixty days, for disturbing the worship in one of the negro churches on Sunday.—Chronicle & Sentinel.

MARRIAGES.

Married, on Wednesday evening, December 3d, at Butler, Ga., by Rev. T. T. Christian, Mr. Daniel Marchant, of Browneville, Ala., to Miss. Julia W., daughter of Rev. William M. Bond, of Butler.

CONGRESS.

SUMNER SEEKS TO SADDLE AMNESTY WITH CIVIL RIGHTS—SENATOR GORDON INTRODUCES AN IMPORTANT COTTON BILL.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, December 10—A resolution recognizing the independence of Cuba introduced by Phillips, of Kansas was referred to the committee on foreign affairs.

On motion of Dawes, the Postmaster General was ordered to report whether the mails at New York and Boston had been tampered with by detectives for the purpose of detecting revenue frauds.

On motion of Wood, the Secretary of the Treasury was asked the cost of refunding the public debt in five per cents. The question includes travelling and other expenses of all personal details of transaction.

Hayes, from Committee on Agriculture, reported a resolution authorizing the printing of quarter million copies of reports of 1872 and 1872 of the Sub-Committee of the Postoffice Committee, considering a repeal of law against free circulation of country newspapers and exchanges.

The Naval Committee reported a bill increasing enlisted men of navy to 10,000 men, with amendments that it should be temporary. The bill passed.

Bill appropriating four million dollars to the navy. Referred to Committee of the whole House.

A portion of the Joint Committee on Mississippi Levees are Morey, Hurlbert, Pierce, Standard, Lewis, Randall and Lamar.

SENATE.

Edmunds, to whose committee temperance regulations was proposed to be referred, stated that Congress had only control over the District of Columbia and Territories.

Several petitions regarding the traffic in liquor, were referred to the Finance Committee.

The Finance Committee reported favorably on a bill for National Banks without circulation. This financial bill made special order for Monday next.

The bill passed by the House for general amnesty was read. Sumner objected to a second reading, not because he was opposed, but desired simultaneously to secure certain rights to colored fellow-citizens.

Gordon, of Georgia, submitted a resolution directing the Secretary of the Treasury to communicate to the Senate the number of bales of cotton seized under orders of the department after the close of the war—from whom and where taken; by whom taken; when and where sold; at what what price, and what disposition was made of the proceeds; when and how much of the same went into the Treasury Department; also a list of claims filed before him under Act of March, 1872, showing the name of each claimant, how much cotton was alleged to have been taken, and also the amount of expenses deducted from the proceeds of the sale of such cotton, and whether the same is allowed by the department, and in whose favor. Laid over.

Full Judiciary Committee had a long discussion over Williams' nomination for the Chief Justiceship. No action.

No important nominations or confirmations affecting the South to-day, except Lyon as Attorney for the Eastern District of Virginia, who was nominated and confirmed on the same day. He succeeds Wells, who resigned.

THE WEATHER.

WINDS AND CLOUDS IN GEORGIA.

For New England and the middle States, partly cloudy and clear weather with low temperature and northwesterly to westerly winds will prevail, followed by increasing cloudiness and variable winds on Thursday afternoon. For the lake region and thence southward to the Ohio Valley and Virginia light and occasionally fresh to southwesterly winds with partly cloudy weather and areas of light rain. For the northwest less pressure, rising temperature, easterly to southeasterly winds and light rains. For the South Atlantic and the Gulf States east to the Mississippi easterly to southerly winds with partly cloudy weather and but slight changes of temperature.

NEWCASTLE, DEL., December 10.—The bank robbers were publicly whipped to-day in presence of two thousand people.

CIVIL RIGHTS.

GRANT PREDICTS THE PASSAGE OF THE CIVIL RIGHTS BILL THIS SESSION—A PISTOL ACCIDENTLY FIRED ALARMS THE CROWD.

WASHINGTON, December 10.—The Louisiana delegation to the Civil Rights Convention visited the President. Senator West introduced them.

The President said he was glad to meet them. He had always endeavored to secure for the colored man all the rights which should accompany enfranchisement. Certain rights are still withheld, but he hoped that ere long they would find themselves in full possession of all the privileges which belong to freemen.

He said he did not know what Congress would do in the matter, but he thought it likely that that body would, at its present session, pass a civil rights bill, and that if such a bill is defeated it will probably be because it is an extreme measure and urged by some person who claims to be a particular friend of the colored man

Colonel Lewis was orator in behalf of visitors

The National Civil Rights Convention was startled to-day by the accidental discharge of a pistol in a member's pocket. The ball passed through the boot leg of Mr. Sumner, of Miss. No harm.

Pinchback was elected permanent President. He addressed the convention, returning thanks for the honor conferred upon him, and expressing his gratitude to the Republican party for what it had accomplished in behalf of the colored race. He proceeded to recapitulate the status of the colored race here since the introduction of a cargo of Africans by the Dutch in 1620, into Virginia, when they were sold as slaves, and up to the late cruel war, since which time the race have been clothed with political rights. They now ask the National Legislature to give them such privileges as are accorded to the white race. These embrace the right of admission into the public schools, theatres, hotels, and on steamboats and railroad cars. It was a fallacy to say that the colored race are slaves by instinct. They were free before they were sold by their former captors and traders, and a long series of years of bondage has not extinguished their love of freedom. He cited the succeeding record of the race between their emancipation, and denied that it was dependant upon the Caucassion race for sustaining its vigor of intellect as often as asserted, and pointed out education as the way to have recognition and seek them instead of begging for it. There was some squabbling over minor places. No action regarding matters of the Convention.

FOREIGN.

BAZAINE DEGRADED FROM RANK AND SENTENCED TO DEATH WITH RECOMMENDATION FOR MERCY.

VERSAILLES, December 10.—Sachand, the counsel for Bazaine, in his peroration said: "I deeply sympathize with the valiant soldier overwhelmed by terrible accusation. I fear not death for him. He is brave and fears nothing but the loss of honor and for the sake of his wife and children. I feel most for France which will deplore the loss of a valorous soldier. Your honor and patriotism forbids that you should condemn him. You know what political trials are, on the spot on which posterity has raised a statue to those executed after trial."

M. Pourcet replied demanding that a terrible example be made as a lesson to rising generations.

Before the Judges withdrew Bazaine said: "I have two words in my breast, Honor and Country. I have never been wanting towards this proud motto during forty-two years of service. I swear before Christ that I have not betrayed France."

After a long deliberation the Judges declared Bazaine guilty of the charges of the capitulation of Metz and the army in open field and without doing all that was prescribed by honor and duty to avoid a surrender, and unanimously condemned him to death, and to be degraded from his rank previous to his execution.

After judgment had been rendered all the members of the Court signed an appeal for mercy, which Duke de Armale immediately conveyed in person to President MacMahon Bazaine was greatly agitated when he heard the decision of the Court.

It solicits subscriptions for that purpose.

The reported protestant chapel will be established in Havana.

The British war vessel Niobe has arrived here. Telegrams announcing the refusal of the United States to allow the Virginius to be delivered to a neutral power creates dissatisfaction here, the impression for the past three days, according to telegrams being that the United States government would not consent for the peace of the island to be disturbed.

WASHINGTON, December 10.—The naval details for receiving the Virginius at Havana and the survivors of the burrial of the butcher at Santiago de Cuba according to the diplomatic agreement. The Canandaigua, under command of Capt. Lowry, will sail from New York to-morrow to receive the Virginius and the prisoners at Santiago will be delivered up to Capt. Braine of the Juniata.

Capt. Lowry had a two hours' consultation with Secretary Robeson and the bureau officers of the Navy Department to-day, during which the details and etiquette of saluting the flag were arranged as far as possible. Rear-Admiral Scott, at Key West, will have the strongest naval force under his command that has ever been collected by this Government at any port since the war. The Virginius will be given up on Tuesday of next week.

"St. Nicholas" and "Our Young Folks."

THE publishers of ST. NICHOLAS, SCRIBNER'S ILLUSTRATED MAGAZINE for Girls and Boys, take pleasure in announcing that, by an arrangement with Messrs. J. R. Osgood & Co., their popular Magazine

"Our Young Folks"

HAS BEEN MERGED IN "ST. NICHOLAS."

In addition to the striking novelties and great literary and artistic attractions already offered by "ST. NICHOLAS," THE BEST FEATURES OF "OUR YOUNG FOLKS" will be retained. "ST NICHOLAS" HAS BEEN ENLARGED, new contributions have been secured: among them

A SERIAL STORY BY J. T. TROWBRIDGE

Late Editor of "Our Young Folk," which begins in the present number. Other Eminent writers well known to the readers of "Our Young Folks," have been engaged. We are thus enabled to present to the public a magazine for Children and Youth, superior in every respect to any ever before published.

Three Splendid Serial Stories:

"WHAT MIGHT HAVE BEEN EXPECTED,"

A Story for Boys,

By FRANK R. STOCKTON,

Author of "Ting-a-Ling," "Roundabout Rambles," etc. Mr. Stockton is one of the best of our American Writers. The scene of the story is laid in Virginia. The boy-hero has started out with a gun on his shoulder, and we may be sure there will be plenty of fun and adventures.

"NIMPO'S TROUBLES"

A Story for Girls,

By OLIVE THORNE (Mrs. Harriet M. Miller.)

A great favorite with the children. It is a good, strong, wholesome story of girl life, and will be full of interest for both boys and girls.

"FAST FRIENDS."

By J. T. TROWBRIDGE,

One of the most popular writers for young folks in America. Readers of "Jack Hazard," "A Chance for Himself," and "Doing his Best," will understand what a capital treat is in store for them in Mr. Trowbridge's new story. All these Stories will be Splendidly Illustrated.

"JIMMYJOHN STORIES,"

By Mrs. ABBY MORTON DIAZ,

Author of "The William Henry Letters," "William Henry and his Friends," and "Lucy Maria" (who has the rare and happy gift of knowing how to delight young people,) will appear during the year. There will also be Shorter Stories, Papers on Science and History, Natural History, Wild Sports and Adventures, Sketches of Travel, Fairy Tales, Poems, Puzzles, Charades, Jingles, Fun and Fancy, Instruction, Entertainment and Delight. Something for all, from Father and Mother to the Baby. The illustrations will be the best that the Artists of two continents can supply, and will be printed with the greatest care.

FOR VERY LITTLE FOLKS.

Our pages in big type and easy words for the youngest readers, which have been "a hit" from the first, will be continued. The children will be glad to know also, that the department of

is to be a permanent feature of the magazine. Jack will tell some of the most curious things ever known, and make himself generally entertaining.

We have undertaken to make the best magazine possible, for the little folks, as well as those who are older. Every number of St. Nicholas will contain good reading matter for boys and girls of all ages, besides a great deal of hearty and innocent fun. Christmas comes but once a year, but St. Nicholas, the new magazine for girls and boys, comes every month. It has already won the hearts of the young folks, and the little Children are Crying for St. Nicholas.

WE WANT 100,000

Children and Youth Made Happy

BY ST. NICHOLAS AT THE HOLIDAYS.

St Nicholas, as enlarged, contains one-third more matter than Our Young Folks, thus giving a great variety for all. With its great Literary and Pictorial Attractions, and its beautiful Printing, it will be found to be the Cheapest Magazine in the World.

Subscription Price, $3 a year. The back numbers for November and December, 1873, will be sent to all subscribers for 1874, without additional charge. Four Months for ONE DOLLAR; twenty-five cents a Number. For sale and subscriptions received by all Booksellers and News Dealers on the above terms.

Money may be sent to us in checks payable to our order, or in Post-office Money Orders, or in Registered Letters. Money in Letters not Registered, at sender's risk.

SCRIBNER & CO., 654 Broadway, New York.

GRAND SUPPER TO-NIGHT

The ladies of the First Presbyterian Church give a grand supper to-night

AT CONCORDIA HALL,

for the benefit of the Church.

The ladies will have everything to satisfy the most epicurean appetite. In addition to this a pleasant is anticipated. It is to be hoped that the public will avail themselves of the opportunity to be present, and sustain the ladies in their noble effort. The price of admission is including supper.

VOCAL PAST TIME

Come out to-night to the supper by all means.

Shoddy, Sham and Show.

Rev. James Dixon, D. D., of Augusta, will lecture, under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association of this city, on Thursday evening, 18th inst., at James' Hall. Subject: "Shoddy, Sham and Show."

This distinguished lecturer treats this subject with most admirable skill, and never fails to hit the mark full in the centre.

Season tickets, admitting gentleman and lady to lectures by Rev. Dr. Dixon, Bishop Pierce, and Hon. Alexander H. Stephens, can be had at the book store of Phillips & Crew, or from any member of the Association for one dollar.

THE GREAT EASTERN CIRCUS.—"The circus came in all of its glory on yesterday, and an immense crowd gathered here to see it. All sorts, sizes, ages, races, colors and "previous conditions of servitude" were on hand, and the Great Eastern did a big business. It is one of the largest and best appointed concerns of the kind now traveling, and the panic don't seem to have any effect on the receipts.

Dr. Haight declares his intention to run it red hot, if the panic gets a thousand times worse. There never was a better show, and can't be, as the actors are first class, and the stock in splendid order. If anybody ever was suspicious of the solvency of the Great Eastern Circus, they had as well dispel it, for it is as good as a gold mine."—Griffin News.

KNIFE AND PISTOL.

Affray in Coweta County, near Palmetto—A Young Man Dangerously Shot.

Editors Constitution: An affray occurred about 9 o'clock, Wednesday morning, on the plantation of Mr. Warren Mobley, in Coweta county, four miles from Palmetto, between a son of Mr. Mobley and a young man named Hudson. The difficulty arose about the delivery of corn, Mobley contending that it was to be delivered at the crib and Hudson that it was to be delivered in the field. Hudson knocked young Mobley down and cut at him with a knife,

CUTTING HIS COAT AND VEST,

when Mr. Warren Mobley ran up to the rescue of his son. Hudson turned on him with his knife, when Mr. Warren Mobley the ball taking effect in his neck and shoulder. The wound is considered dangerous, and it is feared will prove fatal. Mr. Mobley has not been arrested as yet. Both men stand high in the community. ***

FIRED AT HUDSON,

The following special committee was appointed to whom the report was referred; W H Potter, G H Pattillo, F W Smith, C P Crawford, J H Grogan.

Rev. W. F. Cook, Agent, requested that all monies for the Orphans Home should be handed to him.

A communication was read from Dr T. O. Summers. Also a communication from Rev. Dr. J. B. McFerrin, Secretary of the Missionary Society of the M. E. Church South. It showed promising prospects among the Germans, Indians and Mexicans; great encouragement from our mission in China; wide door opened in Mexico; all the Territories call for help. We have the men—we need the money. There is a new and greater missionary zeal. The contributions should be doubled. Two hundred and fifty thousand dollars are needed. Forty per cent. of missionary collections are turned over to the Secretary for foreign fields—sixty per cent. used for domestic missions. Report referred to the Board of Missions.

Rev. James Stacy, pastor of the Newnan Presbyterian Church, was introduced to the Conference.

A legacy from an estate in Newton county was presented to the Conference—one-half of the estate for superannuated preachers, the other half as the Conference may direct.

Also a legacy from another estate to be divided equally between the Foreign and Domestic Missions.

A memorial from Rev R Abney to the Congress of the United States, petitioning Congress to pay damages done to the Publishing House at Nashville by the federal army, was read to the Conference. The Conference by vote requested the presiding Bishop and Secretary to sign the memorial. This paper is to be read to all the Conferences.

Bishop Robert Paine having arrived, and being in the chair, the exhibit of the Southern Methodist Publishing House was read, showing:

DEDICATION CEREMONIES.

Dedication of the Church of the Immaculate Conception—Imposing Ceremony—Pontifical Mass by Bishop Gross—Sermon by Rev. Father Hamilton of Augusta—Papal Benediction.

Yesterday, by ten o'clock, a dense mass of people had gathered on Loyd and Hunter streets in front of the new Catholic Church, but the doors were not opened until half past ten, when the Church was soon filled. Nearly one thousand had assembled in it. Before the crowd was admitted, Bishop Gross assisted by Rev. Father Hamilton and others, in solemn procession, arrayed in the robes of his office, proceeded around the building blessing its walls as they went.

The altar was handsomely decorated with twenty boquets of flowers. Some twenty-three candles, of which about thirteen were burning, were on the altar.

Pontificial mass was celebrated. The ceremonies were imposing in the extreme. The congregation, acquainted with the ritual, joined heartily in its celebration. The music by the choir was grand, especially the "Te Deum Laudamus" at the close.

Rev. Dr. Hamilton, of Augusta announced that a requiem would be sung at seven o'clock this morning by Bishop Gross for Father O'Reilly.

A mission for the benefit of the church will begin at high mass next Sunday.

Rev. Dr. Hamilton is an eloquent and forcible speaker. His words flow with ease and rapidity, and are full of power. He has a benignant expression of countenance and commanding personelle. He preached the dedication sermon from Matthew 13 chapter, 31 and 32 verse—"The parable of the grain of mustard seed."

SERMON OF REV. FATHER HAMILTON.

Father Hamilton announced that the subject of his discourse would be the rise and progress of the church He would show how from a small and contemptible beginning it had grown and expanded into its present magnificent proportions. The term "Kingdom of Heaven," which occurs in the text, was used in Holy Writ with a variety of meanings. In one connection it referred to the Church Triumphant in Heaven, in another to the effect produced by the presence of the "Holy Spirit" in a man's heart, and in another to the Church militant on earth. He would not, however, refer to the Scriptures for proof of the divinity of the Church He did not require such reference, but would show its divinity by an examination into its origin and growth. To this examination he invited the careful attention of all good catholics, for as the Church might well be called the fortress which guarded their faith, it behooved them to inquire diligently into the strength of that fortress, and its ability to resist the attacks of the enemy.

No society that has ever had an existence started from an humbler origin than the church of Christ. The Saviour confided his mission to fishermen, and they went abroad to all people carrying the truth. The Apostles never for an instant doubted their divine mission. They believed that the Saviour was a God because he wrought miracles which none but a God could perform Here the Father instanced the miracles of the calming of the tempest by a word, and the raising of Lazarus from the dead. The weapons which the early Apostles used were not those which have often times been used since their day. They did not believe in conversion of men by the sword and the extinction of all who did not believe with them. With Faith, Hope and Charity they went forth to conquer the world, and show to sinners the way of happiness. The might of the world as it then existed was arrayed against them. Rome exerted all her strength to crush them out. But still they increased and spread abroad the truths with which they had been entrusted. Even while compelled to seek refuge in the catacombs, the early christian women would go abroad by stealth and gather up and carry to places of safety the children who had been abandoned by their pagan parents; so that their love for each other was soon noticed. Charity was one of the rocks upon which their faith was founded. The Catholic was the first church to start these asylums for the orphans and the helpless which are now thickly scattered over the land. Another thing noticeable about these early christians was the change which their new faith had wrought in their lives. They believed that the sacrifice of the lusts and sins of the flesh was acceptable to God, and the austerities that they practiced are well known to us all. Many of the doctrines which had been confided to them, they did not understand, but this did not cause them to doubt either their divinity or their truth. They presented the somewhat strange spectacle of men endeavoring urgently to spread truth into whose mysteries they themselves had not been permitted to enter. Passing rapidly over the expansion of the Church, Father Hamilton came to the Church of the present day. This he compared most beautifully to a tempest tossed ship. The clouds thickening over head and the lightning dancing amid her spars, but still battling with the enemy, until finally she reaches an harbor of safety. The circumstances which surrounded the Church just now were peculiar. The Holy Father, the illustrious Pius the IXth, was a prisoner in his own dearly loved Rome, because he would not surrender his principles to accept the maxims of the 19th century. The nations of Europe, who until recently had regarded the possession of the faith as their brightest ornament were now turning their backs upon the mother who had nurtured them, and were afflicting her with the bitterest persecution. In this country the troubles of the church arose chiefly from the unrighteous lives and acts of men who claimed to be Catholics. They had not lived as consistently as they ought to have done, and in many instances had brought confusion upon their church. It behooved Catholics to be watchful and to strive to bring into the fold all of their friends and relations who were as yet unconverted.

Father Hamilton then alluded to the work they had just accomplished here of erecting this beautiful edifice. It would be a blessing to thousands of Catholics yet unborn, for here they would receive their first impressions of the Faith. He praised also their generosity in contributing towards this church, and also the generosity of their Protestant friends who had so kindly assisted them. Upon them all he invoked the blessing of God.

He spoke briefly of the honor he felt in preaching the first sermon within these consecrated walls, and closed with a most beautiful tribute to the late Father O'Reily whose spirit he doubted not was present at that time. He spoke of the last conversation he had ever had with him, and that the latter had said that he felt he had not long to stay here and only desired to be permitted to say one mass in this church before he died.

The whole of Father Hamilton's sermon was very beautiful, and was so very conservative that had one or two thoughts been cut out, it could have been preached in any Christian church in the land without offence.

DESCRIPTION OF THE CHURCH.

The church is in the Gothic style. Its dimensions are as follows: Length 140 feet; width 70 feet across nave and aisles, and 78 feet across transepts; the exterior walls are supported by buttresses surmounted by moulded granite caps, at the corners of the transept projection the buttresses terminate in an octagonal pinnacle with carved finials. In the ends of the transepts are placed one large triple lighted window and a large eight-lobed wheel window, lighted by ornamented stained glass.

At the northwest corner of the Church is situated the main tower, which is twenty-two feet square, and affords entrance into the organ loft. The corners of the tower have large buttresses terminating at the belfry, from which starts the corner pinnacles. The whole height of the tower is 125 feet.

At the southwest corner is situated the baptistery and ladies entrance into the organ loft and choir gallery. These parts form a small tower 17 feet 6 inches square, and 80 feet high.

The nave walls are supported by heavy iron columns from which springs a series of moulded arches on both sides. The aisle walls are 20 feet high, from which the roof timbers are supported, which are connected over the iron columns into the nave walls. The roof over the nave is divided into panels by moulded arches springing from clustered columns setting upon heavy carved corbels. The height from the floor to the ridge of the ceiling is 48 feet; the width of the nave is 32 feet.

The arch over the sanctuary is thirty feet span, springing from clustered columns with carved capitals. Upon each side of the sanctuary are chapels, over which arches of the same proportions are made; at the apex of the arches are emblems characteristic of the use of chapels. The inner plan of both sanctuary and chapels form half of a decagon, the angles rising and forming part of a dome, intersecting with the sanctuary and chapel arches.

The Sacristy is on one side of the Sanctuary and the Vestry Room on the other, connected by a passage way in the rear of the Sanctuary.

There are one hundred and sixty-two pews, accommodating near one thousand persons. The main entrance is reached by a flight of twelve granite steps, leading into three arched ways, the centre being the largest, which is supported by a series of columns and perpendicular mouldings. Over the top of the door is a Gothic Balustrade.

The building is of brick with granite dressings, resting upon ashlar work (stone) and the roof is of slate. The building is heated by hot air furnaces. The basement rooms will be used for lecture and school rooms. The front window is fifteen feet wide and twenty four feet high.

The rock work was done by Patrick Lynch; the brick work by Heely, Berry & Hayden; the carpentry by Longley & Robinson; the plastering and ornamental work by John George. The church will cost between $75,000 and $80,000.

The glass in the Transept windows cost $226 each. The glass in the triple window facing Hunter street was given by John Ryan, and in the wheel window by Arthur Connally. That in the window of the other transept was given by Mrs. M. A. Dougherty and family, and that in the wheel window by John Connally.

The glass in the window lighting the organ loft and fronting Loyd street, was given by the Sodality of St. Joseph's. Richard Byrnes, Thomas Byrnes, M. Bloomfield, A T Finney, M Mahoney, M Lynch, Owen Lynch, John Stephens, P H O'Nel and Henry Fleck, each gave the glass for a window. The glass cost $100 for each window. The names of the donors are inscribed on the glass. The names of those giving glass for the upper row of windows will be inscribed on a tablet yet to be set up in the church.

The work on excavating the ground for the foundation of the new edifice was commenced in June, 1869. On the first of September of that year the corner stone was erected, when Father Ryan delivered the address. Bishop Verot, Father O'Reilly, Father O Hara, of Augusta, and others were present.

The corner stone bears the inscription, "Erected and blessed September 1st, 1869," and "Thou art Peter and upon this rock will I build my church" Mat. 16c, 18v.

W. H. Parkins is the architect.

The church is one of the handsomest in the South, and is an ornament to our city.

About $600 was realized from the sale of tickets yesterday.

VESPERS.

The attendance at vespers last night was large, comprising quite a number of Protestants. Yesterday is known in the calendar as the octave of the Immaculate Conception. After the usual services Bishop Gross delivered a brief but eloquent address to the congregation. He congratulated the congregation on the completion of this handsome edifice, and that it was first opened to the worship of God on the feast of the Immaculate Conception—of the Virgin Mary, who was not only the mother of God but of the Church. He thanked the building committee for their energy and zeal, and the Protestants who had contributed so liberally toward its erection. He invoked the Divine blessing upon them and all dear to them.

The exercises were concluded with the benediction of the blessed sacrament.

MECHANIC, NO. 2.

Seventeenth Annual Parade—Success with the Patent Nozzle—226 solid Feet thrown—Election of Officers—Supper.

Mechanic Fire Company celebrated their seventeenth anniversary yesterday. They paraded through our streets headed by a splendid band of music. This is an old, "tried and true" company; one that has seen "some service," and is still vigorous and energetic. The steamer has been in use since 1856. The manufacturer warranted it to throw 220 feet. Yesterday they tried the patent nozzle, shutting off the stream without stopping the engine, with the most brilliant success. With an 1⅜ inch nozzle they threw a

SOLID STREAM OF 226 FEET.

After the parade was over, the company proceeded to the ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

The election of officers resulted as follows: President, James E. Gullatt; Vice-President, H. Karwiec; Secretary, C B Cranshaw; Treasurer, R. C. Young; First Director, H. C. SUPREME COURT OF GEORGIA, December 10, 1873.

EASTERN CIRCUIT.

At the conclusion of the argument of Mr. Lovell, the Court adjourned until 10 o'clock A. M. to-morrow

Fulton Superior Court,

Met yesterday morning at half-past eight o'clock pursuant to adjournment, Hon. John L. Hopkins, Judge presiding,

C. P. Butt and H. J. Holtzclaw were sworn to serve on the petit jury during the present week in place of P. Schram and E. E. Rawson, excused.

A negro prisoner, Bob Matthews, who has been in jail for the past six months charged with breaking, entering and stealing certain goods from the house of Addison Ward, on the 15th day of April, 1853, made a demand for trial yesterday through his counsel, Mr. Hoke Smith and had it entered on the minutes. If the prisoner is not tried at the present or next term of the Court he is then entitled under the law to a discharge.

Mrs. M. C. Morrison vs. Charles Latimer. Bill for injunction, etc Upon consideration of this bill the injunction was refused.

The Grand Jury found a true bill against Clem Harris, Charles McCoy, Dred Darden and Floyd Reed, for larceny from the person. These are the parties who were implicated in the robbery of Mr. Furlow, of Heard county. The Grand Jury first presented this crowd for robbery, a more serious offense, but afterwards reconsidered their action and presented them as above for a misdemeanor.

State vs. Green Martin, assault with intent to rape upon one Amanda Harshaw. The defendant is a one-armed mulatto man. The Prosecutrix is a negro woman. The prisoner plead not guilty to the indictment and went to trial. Col. P. L. Mynatt and Messrs. Gartrell & Stephens appeared for the defense. The jury found the defendant guilty of an assault. The Court sentenced the prisoner to work six months on the public works of Fulton county.

State vs. James Peek, keeping open a tippling house on the Sabbath day. This case was also tried. Messrs Spencer and Hulsey appeared for the defense. The jury found a verdict of guilty, and the Court sentenced the prisoner to pay a fine of $350 and cost, and to remain in custody until the same are paid. The prisoner gave notice of a motion for a new trial.

Evidence was heard in the cases against James O Harris and Dr. G. W. Croft, each of whom had plead guilty to an assault.

The statements of the parties in these cases were so conflicting that the Judge determined to reserve sentence until he could hear further and more disinterested testimony.

The last case tried yesterday was that against the negro Charles McCoy, charged with being one of the crowd who robbed Mr. Furlow. Messrs. W. F. Wright S. B Spencer, and John A. Stephens, for the defence. The jury retired late in the afternoon, and had failed to agree up to the adjournment of Court.

The Commissioner's Court.

James Cook, of Fannin county, was sent to jail yesterday for removing distilled spirits unlawfully. He had been committed to jail by Commissioner Dickey, before whom the case was first brought. Commissioner Smith yesterday had the prisoner brought before him here, and upon a plea of guilty recommitted him.

The Justices' Courts.

Abe Wooten, colored charged with stealing a prize box of candy from John T. Hagan, and Mat. Johnson, charged with stealing a box of cigars from Meador & Bro., were sent to jail by Justice Sasseen. In the latter case, Col. T. P. Westmoreland appeared for the prosecution.

THREADING MY WAY.—The autobiography of Robert Dale Owen, published by G. W. Carleton & Co., is a remarkable book, full of delightful gossip, and containing many lessons of enthusiastic self-sacrifice. It is a volume as interesting and valuable as the biography of William and Robert Chambers, and the story of the writer's life is told with the most perfect freedom possible. The book comprises the first twenty-seven years of the writer's life, and therefore treats largely of his childhood and also the character of his father, the famous Robert Owen. The character of New Lanark, the village where Robert Owen put into practice some of his schemes for the elevation of the working classes, is portrayed in a vivid manner. The writer claims for his father the honor of first establishing a Kintergarten in New Lanark, and with much reason. At any rate, the principles of education according to which Robert Owen brought up his children, conformed to the highest ideals of which we have knowledge; and the earnest teacher will find much food for thought in this volume. The description of the peculiar school at Hofwyl which seems almost utopian in its character and whose existence in fiction we would carp at as unreal and impossible, is full of important suggestions. Despite the desultory character of the book, the thoughtful reader will find it in a rich treasure of noble thoughts, and the careless reader will find amusement in the store of lively anecdotes in the book, that are told in an easy style and a fine sense of humor that the author is fortunate in possessing. This book is for sale by Phillips & Crew who are getting in a most exquisite collection of Christmas tricks Their stock of child's books is varied and large. Try them.

THE GEORGIA RAILROAD.—As announced in THE CONSTITUTION last week the Directors of the Georgia Railroad on Tuesday declared their regular semi-annual dividend of four per cent. payable on the first of April.

Colonel Daniel S. Printup, brother of Mr. Peter W. Printup, former Roadmaster of the Georgia Railroad, appeared before the Board and asked to be heard in behalf of his brother. He claimed that the action of the management of the road in reference to the latter was taken without giving that gentleman an opportunity to refute the charges made against him in the auditor's report, or to vindicate his conduct in his official capacity. A resolution was offered and adopted to refer the matter to Colonel E. W. Cole, Superintendent of the Road, to investigate.

A resolution was offered that the salaries of the employees of the road be reduced twenty per cent. On motion the matter was referred to Col. Cole.

The Georgia Railroad was never in better condition. It has been doing a fine business, notwithstanding the financial crash, and there is no reason to suppose that it will suffer any diminution in the future.

ACCEPTABLE PRESENTS—The stuffed birds to be sold to-night at auction by Messrs. Mayson & Norman, will prove acceptable as Christmas presents. The sale begins at 7 o'clock. A stuffed bird it is true does not sing but it costs nothing to feed it.

Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy cures by its mild, soothing and healing properties, to which the disease yields, when Remedy is used warm and system put in perfect order by the wonderful alterative power of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, taken earnestly, to correct blood and system, which are always at fault, also to act specifically upon diseased glands and lining membrane of nose and communicating chambers. Catarrh Remedy should be applied warm with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche, the only instrument with which fluid medicine can be perfectly applied to all parts of passages and chambers in which ulcers exist and from which discharge proceeds. So successful has this treatment proven, that the proprietor offers $500 Reward for a case of "Cold in Head" or Catarrh he can not cure. The two medicines with instrument $2, by all druggists.

DR. TUTT'S VEGETABLE LIVER PILLS.

THE ONLY KNOWN MEDICINE,
THAT AT THE SAME TIME
PURGES, PURIFIES AND STRENGTHENS THE SYSTEM.

Dr. Tutt's Pills are composed of many ingredients Prominent among them are Sarsaparilla and Wild Cherry, so united as to act together; the one, through its admixture with other substances, purifying and purging; while the other is strengthening the system. Thus these Pills are at the same time a tonic and a cathartic, a desideratum long sought for by medical men, but never before discovered. In other words, they do the work of two medicines and do it much better than any two we know of, for they remove nothing from the system but impurities, so that while they purge they also strengthen and hence they cause no debility and are followed by no reaction.

Dr. Tutt's Pills have a wonderful influence on the blood. They not only purify without weakening it, but they remove all noxious particles from the chyle before it is converted into fluid, and thus makes impure blood an utter impossibility. As there is no debilitation, so there is no nausea or sickness attending the operation of this most excellent medicine, which never strains or tortures the digestive organs, but causes them to work in a perfectly natural manner: hence persons taking them do not become pale and emaciated, but on the contrary, while all impurities are being removed, the combined action of the Sarsaparilla and Wild Cherry purifies and invigorates the body, and a robust state of health is the result of their united action. The Nashville Life Insurance Co.,

(16 MAXWELL HOUSE.)

NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE.

(ESTABLISHED JULY, 1869.

Having complied with the laws of Georgia regulating Life Insurance, and with the requirements of the Insurance Department of the State, ask of the citizens of Georgia a consideration of its claims to their confidence and patronage. This it does upon the following grounds:

1st. It is sound, solvent, stable, secure, assets $315 to every $100 of liabilities.

2d. It is building up home interests, investing its means here among us, not draining the South of its life blood.

3d. Its selection of lives has been so careful that its death losses have not exceeded one-half of the assumed amount, and were less last year than its interest account—a very pertinent and suggestive fact.

4th. It has performed more than it promised—paid dividends every year regularly.

5th. It loans its policy-holders the cash surrender value of its policies.

6th. It indorses its surrender values on the policy itself, thereby making it a part of the contract.

7th. It does not require permits to live or travel anywhere.

8th. Its policies contain no unnecessary or illiberal restrictions.

9th. While it is a firmly established institution, it is young and vigorous—is managed with economy, energy, and integrity.

The following indorsement is made on all its Life and Endowment Policies, (both stock and mutual,) and forms part of the contract for Example or Endowment Policies, as follows, viz.:

"Policy No. ——, Endowment D. or ——, Age, ——.

"The surrender value of this Policy for each thousand of its amount WILL NOT BE LESS than as below, viz.:

"After 2 annual payments	$—	in cash, or	$—	in paid-up Insurance.
" 3 " "	$—	" "	$—	" "
" 4 " "	$—	" "	$—	" "
" 5 " "	$—	" "	$—	" "
" 6 " "	$—	" "	$—	" "
" 7 " "	$—	" "	$—	" "
" 8 " "	$—	" "	$—	" "
" 9 " "	$—	" "	$—	" "
" 10 " "	$—	" "	$—	" "

"(After ten years, the value for the next ten years will be stated.)

"Either of the above values will be given on the surrender of this policy, within sixty days after being forfeited for non-payment of premium; or the Company will loan nine-tenths of the cash value during any term for which the premium is paid.

"——, Secretary.

"N. B.—These are the minimum values, and in many cases the Company may allow more."

Thus providing for every contingency and giving a cash value to its policies, and making them good collaterals for loans. We invite particular attention to this feature. By looking at your policy, you know exactly what it is worth in cash and in paid-up insurance, either of which you can take at your own option, and you have sixty days in which to think of it, and to make your choice; or, if you wish to keep up your Policy, and happen to be without money; or if you wish to borrow the money for any purpose THE COMPANY binds itself to lend you nine-tenths of the cash surrender value of the Policy at any time you wish it. Many persons are to-day enabled to keep their policies in force only by the help thus given them by this Company. So it is seen that no event can arise, in which one needs lose his money, which he has paid for premiums, after the Policy becomes non-forfeiting.

The managers and stockholders of this Company comprises the very best business men of Middle Tennessee, as will be seen from the following list:

POSTPONEMENT.

FOURTH GIFT CONCERT
Of Public Library of Kentucky.

A Card to the Public.

The Trustees of the Public Library of Kentucky and the management of the Gift Concert announce the postponement of the Fourth Gift Concert until Tuesday, the 31st of March next.

The public will readily understand the causes which have this postponement necessary.

The financial panic, which has for the last two months paralyzed the business of every section of this country and of Europe, has prevented thousands from investing in tickets. The epidemics pervading almost the entire South have cut off a large and available market. And, too, the public judging from the effects of these causes have expected a postponement and have declined to invest without a more positive assurance of the drawing taking place on a fixed day.

All interested desire a full drawing, but for the reasons just stated this could not be had on the 3d of December, but the short postponement now announced will secure it.

The management have met with unprecedented success. The sales of tickets, the proceeds of which have already been received, amount to OVER A MILLION DOLLARS, with a number of agencies in this country yet to hear from, and all those in Europe.

Thus a drawing (scaling the gifts one-half) could be had now, but the management deem it best to have a postponement and a full drawing.

This postponement assures the sale of all the tickets and A FULL DRAWING. That this determination will meet with the approbation of nearly every one interested is made apparent by the very numerous letters received from every section of this country and the Canadas asking for a postponement.

This action of the management will work no detriment to any but will be for the good of all. By it the fortunate ticket-holders will receive their gifts in full while it will not affect those who do not draw gifts.

In making this announcement the management emphatically state that there will be no further postponement, and to this end all agents will be imperatively required to close up and transmit their accounts to this office by the 21st of March.

THOS. E. BRAMLETTE,

TARRANT'S SELTZER APERIENT

The Greatest Strike Yet.—Everywhere the sick are striking against metallic medicines and powerful vegetable poisons. Everywhere they are strong in the belief that a Constitutional Invigorant—a preparation uniting the properties of a tonic, a gentle purgative, a blood depurent, a sedative, and a general regulator is absolutely necessary in all diseases. Everywhere they are coming to the conclusion that is precisely such a preparation. Within the past year thousands of families have adopted it as a Household Remedy—discarding all the drugs they had previously taken and administered to their children. In general debility, nervousness, liver complaint, constipation, indigestion, rheumatism, and fevers, it is indeed a marvelous medicine. Sold by all druggists.

WHY WILL YE DIE?—Death, or what is worse, is the inevitable result of continued suspension of the menstrual flow. It is a condition which should not be trifled with. Immediate relief is the only safeguard against constitutional ruin. In all cases of suppression, suspension or other irregularity of the "courses," Dr. J. Bradfield's Female Regulator is the only sure remedy. It acts by giving tone to the nervous centres, improving the blood and determining directly to the organs of menstruation. It is a legitimate prescription, and the most intelligent Doctors use it. Prepared by J. H. Bradfield, druggist, Atlanta, Ga; $1 50 per bottle, and sold by respectable druggists everywhere.

Dr. Calhoun's Liver Pills.

I AM engaged in the Manufacture of the Celebrated Family Medicine, known as the Calhoun Liver and Anti-Bilious Pills, under the supervision and assistance of Dr. Calhoun himself. This Pill has been in use for the last thirty-five years, and has taken precedence over all other Family Preparations, by all that have used them. Thousands would certify to their great value if necessary. One fact should supersede any amount of certificates, and that fact is this: Dr. Calhoun has been physician to the Fulton County Prison for over seven years, when the number of prisoners ranged from 20 to 70, laboring under all the diseases incident to this climate. With but few exceptions, they have all been treated with this Pill, and astonishing to say, during that long period not a solitary death occurred under his treatment. This fact is worth any amount of testimonials.

I am now prepared to fill orders from Druggists, Merchants and others. All orders sent me shall receive prompt attention. There is no type of FEVER, DYSPEPSIA, DIARRHŒA, DYSENTERY, RHEUMATISM, CHOLERA MORBUS, BILLIOUSNESS and SICK HEADACHE, or other diseases of a Southern climate, but yields readily to this preparation.

Sanford, the defendant, whose names are now unknown to the Court, are necessary parties defendant to said Bill and that they reside out of the State: It further appearing that the lineal representatives of Burrell Dawson, late of Mississippi, who reside out of this State, (whose names are also unknown) and the lineal representatives of Richard Blount Day, of Virginia, who reside out of this State (whose names are also unknown) and the children of Theodore G. Sanford, of Baldwin county, whose names are now also unknown, are all necessary parties defendant to said Bill Ordered, That complainant have leave to amend his bill by making said children and lineal representatives parties defendant by the descriptions herein contained, where he is unable to ascertain the names of the interested parties, and service of the bill be perfected upon the non-residents by the publication of this order once a month for four months in THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION, a newspaper published in the city of Atlanta, Georgia, and that the case stand for trial at the next term of this Court.

Further ordered, That defendant have leave to insist on both demurrer and answer if the demurrer be overruled.

GEORGIA, WASHINGTON COUNTY.

I do hereby certify that the above and foregoing contains a true extract from the minutes of the Washington Superior Court, at the September Term, 1873.

Given under my hand and Seal of office, at Sandersville, Georgia, this September 12th, 1873
